With rates so low, you can Long Distance often. You can say as much in three minutes as in a letter—if you plan your call in advance.

Candlelight Rites Unite Couple at Wayside Chapel

Honeymooning this week in Idyllwild are Mr. and Mrs. William N. Pepper following their wedding Friday evening at Wayside Chapel.

The bride, the former Margaret Mary Baumann, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Baumann of 2235 W. 243rd street, exchanged vows with Mr. Pepper of San Pedro before a guest group of 125 relatives and friends of the popular couple.

The Wayside Chapel was decorated with large bouquets of white stock and tall candelabra shed soft light on the wedding party as it approached the altar.

Rev. Morris Singer, former pastor of the church officiated at the double-ring ceremony at eight o'clock.

Escorted to the altar on the arm of her father, the bride wore white satin cut en train with the bodice of her gown fashioned with a lace yoke and trimmed in seed pearls. She also wore a pearl necklace and matching ear-rings, a gift from the groom, and her heart-shaped bouquet of orchids was surrounded by white hyacinths. Completing her costume was the finger-tip veil caught up in a crown of seed pearls.

Three attendants were in the bride's entourage, Miss Donna Nausel, as maid of honor, wore lavender chiffon and carried pink rose-buds. Her small bouquet was also fashioned in lavender.

Miss Alice Dunstan chose aqua satin for her gown and Mrs. Richard Baumann, yellow chiffon. Both carried talisman rose-buds.

The groom, son of Mr. and

Mrs. W. R. Pepper of 627 Gaffrey place, San Pedro, was attended by Robert Steinbach, Ushers were Richard Baumann and Carl S. Beam.

Preceding the ceremony John McLaren of Wilmington sang two selections, "Always" and "Lord's Prayer."

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Baumann wore an afternoon dress of Nile green and Mrs. Pepper was attired in navy blue. Complementing their costumes were orchid corsages.

A reception followed in the church parlors with the bride cutting the four-tiered cake which was served with punch. In charge of the guest book was Mrs. Robert Baumann.

For traveling the new Mrs. Pepper wore a rose suit with black accessories. Upon their return from Idyllwild they will establish residence in Wilmington.

The bride is a graduate of Narbonne High School and was employed by the McCown Drug stores for two and a half years. Mr. Pepper, a graduate of San Pedro High School, served four years with the U. S. Navy and now is an employe of General Motors Corporation in South

Sandra Is Feted on Birthday

"Hooray, now I'm a teen-ager." With these words Sandra Baratta, of 1732 West 25th street, greeted her parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Baratta, on St. Patrick's Day.

The evening previous had been enjoyed by a group of twelve girls who gathered at her home to observe the occasion. Many lovely gifts were received by the honoree and refreshments served by her parents.

On Friday evening she was hostess to members of the Girls' Auxiliary of the First Baptist Church, of which she is president. Mrs. Briggs, counselor, presented her with a lovely cake which was cut and served with ice cream and punch.

Not content with these celebrations, she was again feted Sunday evening when she was a guest of Mrs. Alice Henderson, and shared honors with Martha May, whose birthday is also on March 17. They joined a group of girls from the church for dinner in Los Angeles.
